Part D: Breakdown of Course Credit

Academic credit for internships is directly related to the number of hours of experience the student gains at the internship. Furthermore, all INT interns are expected to complete a written assignment as part of their internship experience. This paper will contribute to the number of hours of experience for the intern. Internship credit may not exceed one course unit per semester.

50 hours of experience - .25 units
100 hours of experience - .5 units

150 hours of experience - .75 units
200 hours of experience – 1 unit

Summary Essay (5-7 pages) and/or a portfolio of completed work – 5 hours
Research Paper based on internship (12-15 pages) – 20 hours
Research Paper based on internship (15+ pages) – 25 hours
Other Assignment (provide description and number of hours)

Proposed number of hours for internship: _____

Proposed number of course units: _____

In one paragraph, please explain the tasks of the internship and how you plan to fulfill the required number of internship hours.

Part E: Student Signature

I have read and agree to carry out the responsibilities outlined above. I will report any significant changes in my work assignment and/or any problems encountered at my internship placement immediately to my supervising faculty member.
